4. TAF Operations, Refunds, Cycles

4.1 TAF do not promote or encourage conversations pertaining to politics, religion, or ethnic/cultural background which may be mis-communicated or received in a discriminatory way. TAF promotes a universal language based on Spiritual Principles of Law of Attraction, and the Law of Giving, which are in line with an Abundant Mindset, which is the very foundation of The Abundance Family.

4.2 TAF reserves the right to remove any member at any time for not keeping to the G&Cs and or the Privacy and GDPR Statement, or any other stance in which TAF feels contributed to the removal.

4.3 TAF does not do REFUNDS, TAF's policy is Donate BACK. Any member who desires to leave the group, or wishes to be removed from the group prior to them advancing to a 'Family Leader', can advise the admin team via email to support@theabundancefamilygroup.co.uk, and when the member reaches "Family Leader" they will receive their first donation £28, which is the equivalent of what was first donated when joining the crowdfunding plan. There is no time stipulation as to when this would be done.

4.4 Any member who wishes to be removed or leave TAF, the invitee will be advised that the member has been removed and for what reason.

4.5 Any members that voluntarily remove themselves from the membership of TAF, will receive their gifts back when they reach Family Leader, however, if this impacts the invitee's qualification status or any other member's qualification status, the affected member will need to replace these individuals within a 5 day period, to reinstate the qualification. TAF reserves the right to refuse anyone from being part of our crowdfunding club.

4.6 If a member reaches "Family Leader" is contacted for their email address, and has not responded within a 24 hour period, or the individual has been sent their donation and has not responded in 24 hours, the Admin Support Team have the right to ensure the split continues on the automated platform. The Family Leader or Elder at that point will need to contact Admin Support if for any reason there is a discrepancy with their crowdfunded cycle. This is in order not to hold up any groups from moving forward.

4.7 If a member for any reason has been contacted regarding their donations sent, and they have not responded, TAF has the right to receive the donation on behalf of the member, if after 3 months (90 days) the member has not claimed their donation by way of contacting the Admin Support Team, the donation will then be forfeited.

Any member has the right to gift-in another member into the TAF Club.
